Finance & Commerce with partners Messerli & Kramer and University of St. Thomas held its second annual Commercial Real Estate Forum on June 2 at the Opus College of Business in downtown Minneapolis. Two expert panels discussed “Making the Most of Your Money,” focusing on financing options for commercial real estate and 1031 exchanges. The 130 attendees were able to register for both CRE and CLE credits. For more details, please visit www.finance-commerce.com and click on “Events.”

Thank you to all who were in attendance and helped make the forum a success!
